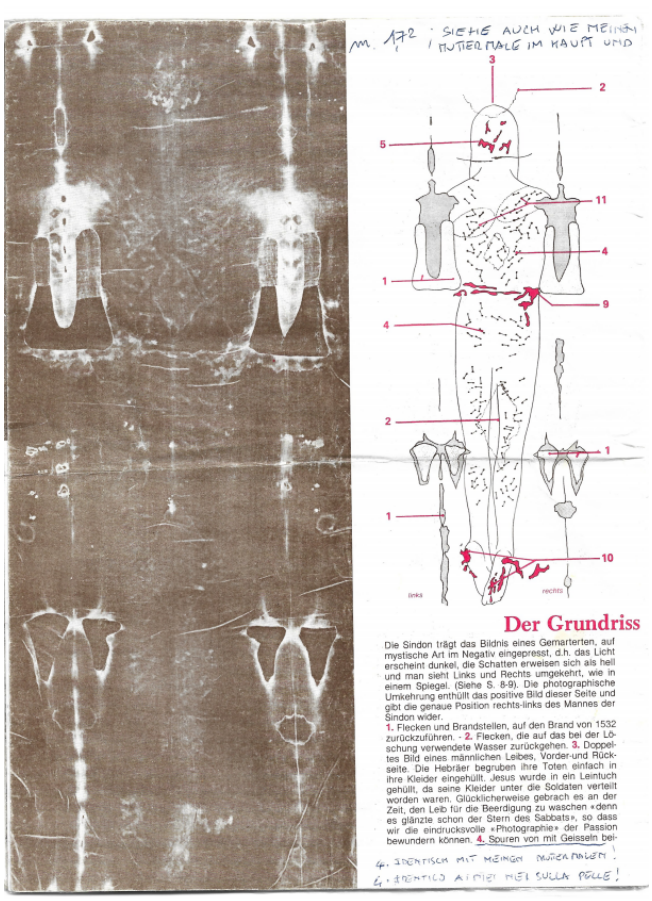
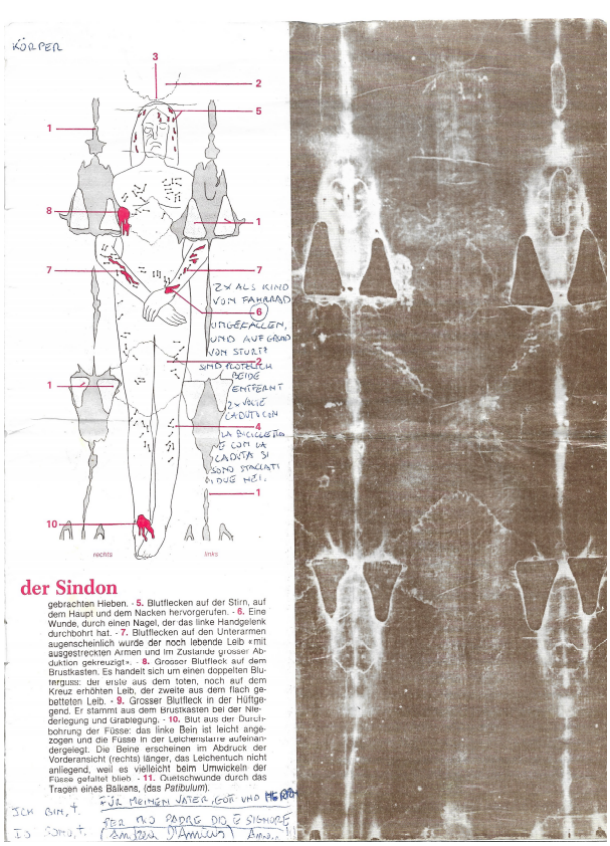
The Flagellation of Jesus and the Body of Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis

Comparing the image of Andrew's back with the image of the Shroud, one can see the extreme similarity between the marks on his skin and those left on the Holy Shroud by Jesus Christ.

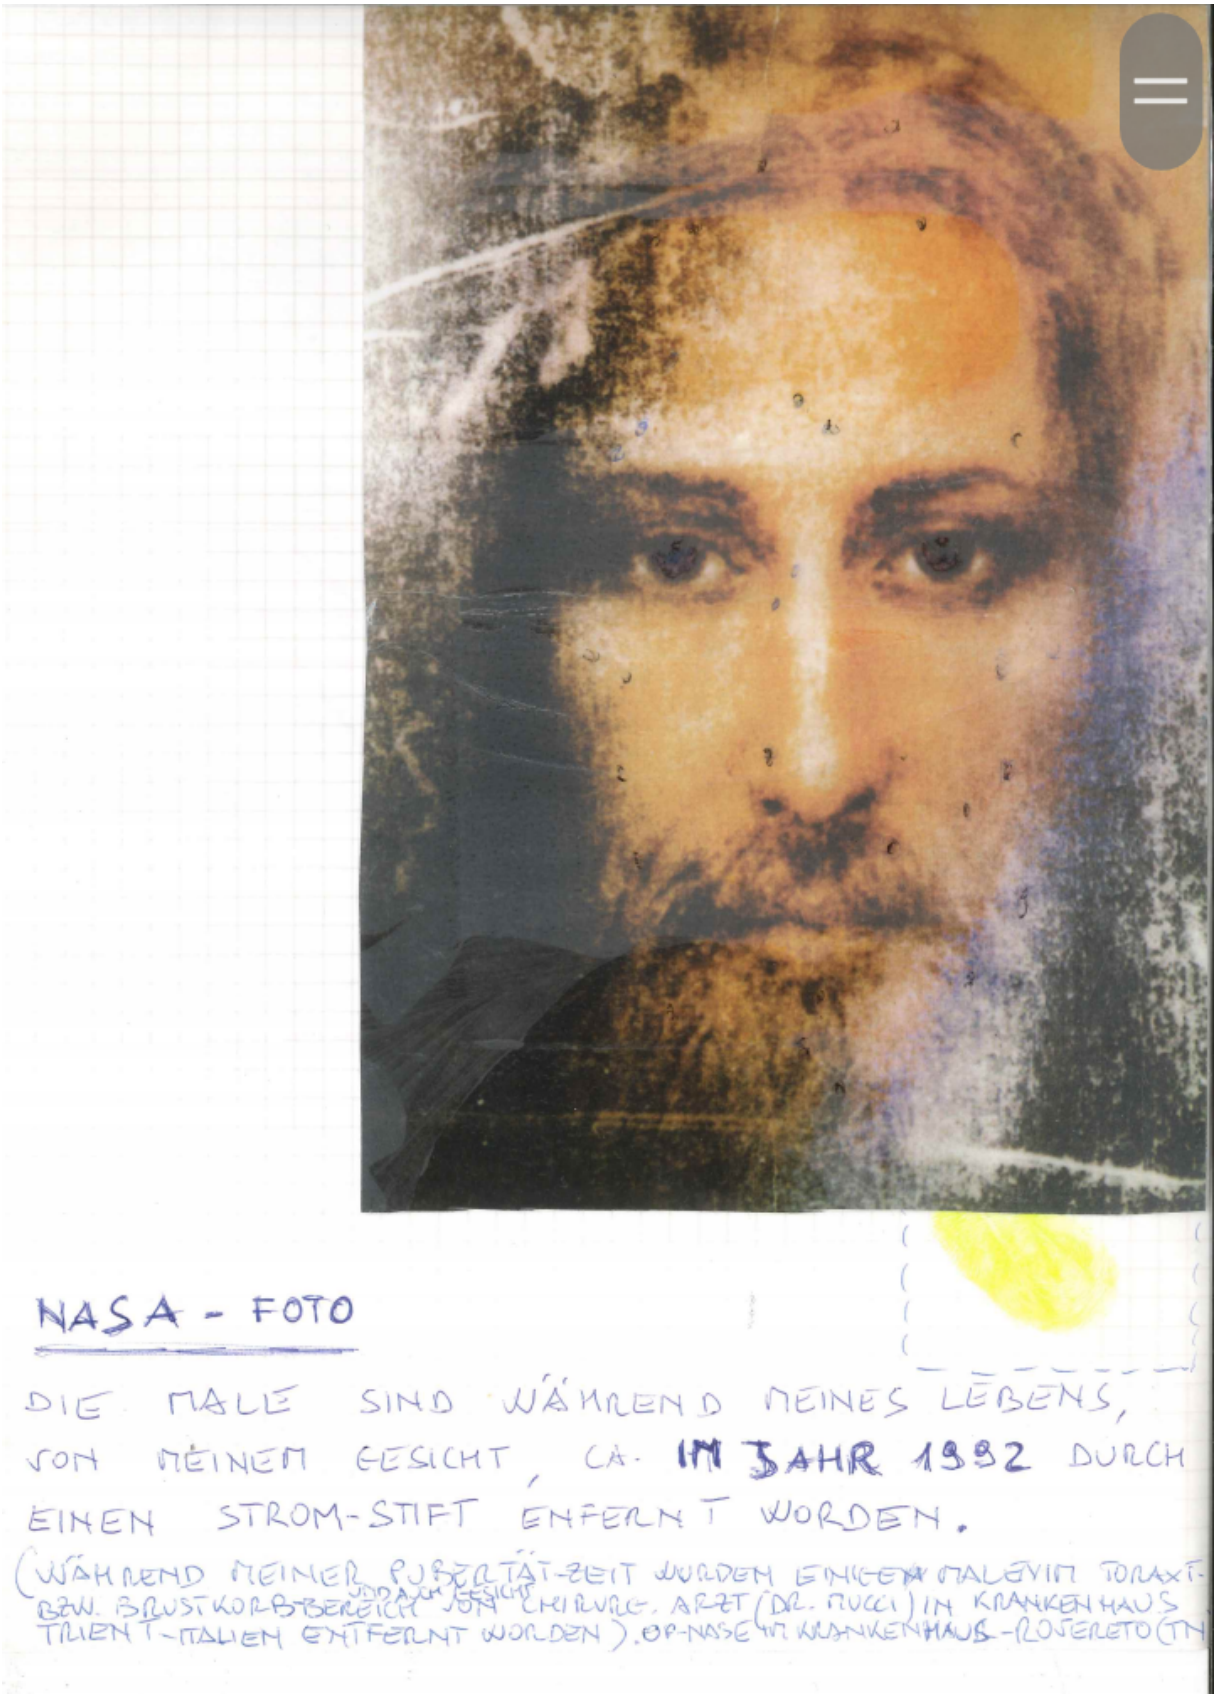




The type of scourge used in Roman times was called flagrum taxillatum (horribile fagrum).

Due tipi di flagelli romani, ed un particolare ingrandito dei segni lasciati sul Corpo di Gesù

"The film "The Passion of the Christ" by the American director really comes close to that scourge, because Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis trembled every time I saw those blows."



TRANSLATION INTO ITALIAN (with reference to the PDF document – I am, the cross):

Moles and some melanomas on the skin are nothing more than the marks as a reminder of the wounds that occurred in past lives.

"The moles and melanomas on the skin of my face were burned (caustic) with an electric soldering iron around the year 1992.
During my puberty period, the surgeon Dr. Mucci, at the civic hospital of Trento, removed (again through caustication) many of those moles and melanomas that were in my chest and torso.
I also had a nasal restoration operation at the civic hospital of Rovereto (TN)."

Realizing his mission, he drew up a "Declaration in writing".

DICHIARAZIONE PER ISCRITTO
La Sindone non appartiene a Torino, ma è di Gesù Cristo di Nazareth, perché io Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis (nato a Barletta l'8 settembre del 1964) ho gli stessi segni nel mio corpo che provengono dalla sua passione.
Pertanto il telo di lino Sindone è mio.
Con delega di mio PADRE-DIO-ABBA-SIGNORE E GIUDICE:
Non sono più accettate scuse o giustificazioni per nessuno!

Edit of Shroud of Turin on wikipedia of 11.12.2019- author Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis born on 08.09.1964 in Barletta.pdf

Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis and the Shroud – Search of 12.12.2019 in Google and on wikipedia.pdf

Ricerca su google (ore circa 15.35) del 12.12.2019 del testo (vedi sotto) che io, Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis nato a Barletta il 08.09.1964, ieri ho inserito nel portale wikipedia

"La Sindone non è di "torino", perchè non è il morto raffigurato nel lenzuolo che si chiama "torino", ma è il lenzuolo di lino di Gesù Cristo, in cui sono riportati gli stessi segni che io, Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis (nato il 08.09.1964 a Barletta) ho nel mio corpo."

Con mio gran dispiacere vedo che il testo sopra descritto non appare oggi il 12.12.2019 nel portale Wikipedia (vedi sotto schermata), e ciò conferma e da testimonianza di chi dovrebbe essere per la verità ma è in realtà un'ipocrita.

My dear brothers and sisters, since I (Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis) in the name of my Father-GOD-ABBA and Lord have introduced myself (see all the files I have inserted as comments) I add in writing the following:
I am the cross.
The cross is me (Andrea Cosimo d'Amicis).
The shroud is mine, because my skin or rather my body has the same marks depicted on the linen cloth of the shroud of Jesus Christ.
Therefore, if I am here for the truth, what sense does it make for me and for you not to say it? I would be a coward if I didn't!
I do not hide, but because I have fear and respect for my Father-GOD-ABBA and Lord that I am obliged to communicate it to you.
Maybe I should have done it before, but it was not the right time, because everything has its own time; just as the cook before cooking the fish, he has to wait for the fish to grow, and the fisherman has to catch it, and then the cook, once he has the fish caught, has to light the fire under the pan, but if he does not have matches for the fire, how can he cook the fish caught?
I am the match that is used to light the fire under the fish pan.

What should I do Dad?
Son, write!
Make two free spaces.

Now write down what I, your Father, GOD, told you!
Yes, Dad.
Can a blind man see a non-blind man?
Answer me son!
No, because the blind man is blind and therefore cannot see anything.
Righteous son.
Now, my son, answer this question;
Can a dead man see an undead one?
No, because being the dead dead he cannot see or rather live with an undead one.
Righteous son.
Now my son, if the dead cannot see an undead one, but the living can see a dead one ... Now tell me, my son, can you see me? Yes or no?
No, Dad!
Therefore, my son, you are dead because you live in the world of the dead, but I, who am Your Father God, can see you, because I am in the world of the living.
Dad, when do you take me or rather make me enter the world of the living?
My son, when you have completed the work in the world in which you are.
Now my son publishes this writing of ours on the scribd portal and then the web address report it as a comment on the portal the book of Thomas the Athlete.
I'm a dad.

Hello my son.

Reminder:

Munich, Consulate of the State of Israel
Approximately 4.24 p.m. – Tuesday 09 August 2022

Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis personally presented myself in front of the entrance / intercom / video camera of the Consulate of Israel and a voice from their surveillance device, introducing himself with the name of their consulate, asked me the reason for my visit in English or Israel.

I answered my question to "them" in English:
Is the name Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis known to you?

Their "voice" answered me several times with a no.

At that moment I thought to myself:
In the past I gave them my "postal card" with my name written on it and "they" now answer me with a denial.

Yet he had given him through a policewoman at the entrance at the time also my German identity document (read my note of that time, in the lines below).

21 May 2021
Small note – in reference to my visit to the Israeli State Consulate (Generalkonsulat des Staates Israel in München – Barer Strasse 19 – 80333 München) at about 2.30 p.m. on 19.05.2021 (Weather outside at that time: rain)

A policewoman dutifully took over my "postal card" for the Consulate of the State of Israel and requested my ID (Ausweis).

After she made her notes based on my identity document (German) and some questions about me, Andrea Cosimo D'Amicis thanked me and then continued my journey to make paradise in this unclean world.

WITNESS MY FATHER GOD ABBA LORD AND JUDGE!
